The follow is the speech made by Mr. The use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite R. W. Moore, of Frirfex, in nominating Hor. John Goode for president of the State constitutional convention in Richmond last Wednesday.

Mr. Cheirman and gentlemen of the convention: The very brief but very brilliant list of those who have presided over our constitu-

So far as the record shows, it wes not o neidered necessary at the time of their selection) speak in detail of the men who have preceded him in this high station—such men as Elmund Pendleton, Philip Barbour and John Y. Ma son. It is equally unnecessary today to sperk in detail of Mr. Goods. His career by a run through a period of half a centu y. The country knows him, the State knows him, and both esteem him. They both give him their confidence. He has been much in the public service, and whether discharg-ing official duties in Richmond or at Washington, the elevation of his character, the conservatism, strength and cultivation of his intellect, his gifts as an orator, and his perfect fidelity, have won for him continually increasing respect and admiration.

So far as his devotion to Virginia is oncerned—the Virginia to which at his time we are turning in our thoughts with peculiar love and affecion-it has been complete and abso ute He cherishes all of her memor-er. He is imbued, as few men now are, with the eplendid spirit of her past. He preserves to himself, and he aims to preserve for all the people, the great lessons of her history and her traditions. As for her present, he un-derstands it—the problems that paidfully press for solution, and the difficulties that surround their consideration. Though far advanced beyond the time to which enthusiesm and hope seem especially to belong, full of courage he looks forward now to her future with faith upabated in the destiny of the Commonwealth which he has served in tays gone by, and which he is to serve again.

Mr. Goode's is a familiar presence in EDY, -Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with research statesmen of Virginia and the South dealing with mighty issues which de-volved upon the secession convention and the Confederate Congress. And now he comes here again, in the ing of his days, to contribute what may be his lest public lators to the great work which the sovereign people of his Commonwealth have decreed. Unchallenged and unsurpassed in experience and patriot sm, in wisdom and in moderation, Mr. Chairman, I respectfully nominate him for the presidency of this convention. (Applause)

BETTINA GERARD.-A letter from Richmond says: "The troubles of Bettina Gerard seem never to cease. After splemn'z ag her seventh marriage et e nas evidently fallen into ill luck again. Yesterday a prominent business man, who had met her casually in a business way during her engagement here last summer, received a telegram from her, dated New York, in which she says: 'Wire fifty dollars at once, very sick, in need, short time.' The gentleman referred to was nonplused. He had er cely seen Miss Gerard while she was here, and he could see no reason why he should contribute anything, es-r cially as her telegram gave no de-ils."

Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating. "After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amai Bell, Fredonia, Pa.
